Characteristics: Responsibilities will always be involved in all money they have or will get. They have the ability to be a manager of a business successfully, an area where they are good. The fact is, even though some people think they are stubborn, they realize that maintaining structure and having clear goals is most important for being successful and content. They are not about to change it, regardless of what others say, if something is working well for them. Taking care of finances is what the Four of Diamonds card symbolizes. Hard work is required for such a task to be accomplished. More than most other cards, diligent work is required to earn their rewards. There are definitely rewards. Failure and frustration will result if they try to get something for nothing. They know what is good for them even when young. Nevertheless, since they do not have roots in a single area, there is an inner restless-ness that must be dealt with.

This comes from not being satisfied. Fortunately, to get additional happiness all that is required is work. All things run smoothly and their fears are put to rest once they get busy. They can enjoy traveling the world and experiencing the things they wanted while young. They often have the most freedom, happiness and security in the twilight of their lives. They often need to work on their closest friends and relatives or marriage. These individuals meet a lot of people and usually have numerous friends because they are very sociable. They have to watch a tendency to get into a pattern they are unable to get out of, because they face difficulties they have to deal with.

Relationships: For both men and women, in the case of Four of Diamonds people, relationships require a lot of work. A life of ease and luxury is not achieved until later in life in many cases. If they view their relationships as a way of escape from life's challenges, problems creep in. Confusion in actual romantic involvement for both Four of Diamonds males and females is possible because they are idealistic relative to love. They can most often acquire what they want in a romance because they are exceedingly charming. That power should be used with caution. If they are not careful, there will be swift and painful consequences, to the point where it might even affect their health. In relationships in order to avoid some very challenging problem, integrity is the key. The Four of Diamonds is a very uneasy person, while being secure and able to handle things externally. This applies to their love lives to a degree; consequently some are challenged to settle down with one individual. Furthermore, one or multiple marriages are difficult because of their karmic pattern. The result is divorce. You have people who really desire a good relationship who must first pass some tests.

Personality Connections: Four of Diamonds women find Club males fascinating. Spade men are a good relationship for Four of Diamond women. With women of the Hearts suit, caution is necessary for Four of Diamond men, who should avoid them. The difficulty in karmic ties is the reason for this.

Confrontations: Many Fours, and the Four of Diamonds in particular, have a strong ability to deal with a struggle. The key to happiness for them is to acknowledge this portion of their being and to take a good hard look at it. There is kind of a strong and heavy-duty quality about these people. They seem to be able to take abuse because they are often built strong. There are challenges to meet in their life and this is not surprising. An example of this is Roseanne Barr, the comedienne, who has had a life like this. She is Four of Diamond Scorpio. Four of Diamonds individuals seem to be able to handle more abuse than others. They do a lot of work and many of them become bitter about this because it is so hard to get anything with-out it. There are some strings attached even to those things most would think of as blessings. That leads to a life that would make most people bitter.
