Seven of Spades:

Belief

Characteristics: Having a positive attitude is one of the difficult obstacles when health issues arise, but that is precisely what Seven of Spades have to do. They must live the higher values they are aware of if they are to keep the power and blessings inherently residing within them. There is tendency to press at times, but they have a lot of internal strength. They are on the line as the Seven of Spades. They suffer countless problems, often physically oriented, if they do not talk and behave from a higher perspective. Sickness, accidents or other physical difficulties make up most of their problems. Because this is one of the most spiritual in the deck, these individuals can generally have a lot success as long as they do not waste their wisdom that is meant to lead them through life. Seven of Spades members are present to learn to trust as well as keep their faith despite their environment. Challenges in their lives come in from work and physical health. Their Life Path is one of the better ones in the deck. They will have a lot of their personal desires come true in this lifetime because their Birth Card sits in the Jupiter area of the Life Spread. A lot become well known and successful because they have so many abilities they can use to be successful and satisfied in their lives. They need follow their intuition and live according to their knowledge. A high, spiritual force is the source of their protection, but this must be realized and honed through their actions with the highest level of truth and pure motives. Their lives take on a magical quality once this is accomplished. Being almost unlimited in their ability to do good, many accept a special goal of helping the world. Selfish notions and goals are sure to lead to suffering to some extent for those who are attached to them. Romantic associations or marriage often lead to receiving monetary support. If they are hard workers and stay honest, they will always do fine. Only they can stop themselves. A symbol of protection and security is found even in their Saturn card and this symbolizes that almost nothing can actually harm them except their own fears or self-doubt.

Relationships: Much like their Karma Card, Seven of Spades women are generally strong-willed. A role of a passive, subservient female is one they have trouble filling because of their fundamental strength. Any man in her life must be confident to get along in a relationship, because she can stand up for herself. They still cannot get away from the obstacles of their Birth Card, in spite of their good marriage karma, which infringes in every area of their life, including their romantic relationships. Even if they have everything they desire, they may be overwhelmed by fear or a negativity about life. To maintain positive energy between each other they need to have faith and remain positive. The advantage of marriage can carry over into both the financial as well as spiritual realms and fortunately; these people have some of the better marriage karma of all the cards. They must watch an inclination to place too much importance on financial aspects, because a lack of higher values will bring them more difficulties than good. However, they are drawn to people of means as well as mental power.

Personality Connections: Spade females are attracted to Seven of Spades males but Diamond females experience them negatively. Both Diamond and Club males draw in Seven of Spades women and there is an affection felt by Club males. Hearts females find Seven of Spades males are a challenge.

Confrontations: The Seven of Spades frequently have had a major accident in their life and, surprisingly, it is often recently. Auto accidents seem to be common and a lot of them appear to have experienced a series of them. If you see someone who appears to have been in an accident, odds are they are a Seven of Spades. Ask them this question if you should meet a Seven of Spades individual. Prior to them telling you anything about their life, ask them whether, for example, they have been in a serious accident in their life.
