Characteristics: The Ace of Diamonds can be extremely generous and kind or, oddly enough, impatient, selfish and aggressive. Jupiter leans toward expanding the Neptunian notion of charity to great extremes at times and their makeup has the Jupiter/Neptune card in their Life Spread. All of them tend to help those in need and are kind-hearted on one level. They hate to see not just humans, but any animals suffering. Many make significant contributions to worthy causes because of the influence of Neptune making them want to reach high ideals. Rescuers of some kind are the way most Ace of Diamonds individuals think of themselves. Neptune can lead us on a path of great deception and wrong ideals, because they are sometimes an illusion, even if they save friends, family, associates, partners or spouses. An ability for discrimination is what this depends on. The Ace of Diamonds can manifest itself in numerous fashions and is inherently passionate. Having money (or security) and love at the same time is one main issue for them. They tend to focus all of their being toward one place and exclude all others, maybe because this is their nature. This aspect is at the forefront of both men and women regardless of the cause. One Ace of Diamonds was Paul Newman who did a lot for charities. However, another Ace of Diamonds was Adolph Hitler. Believing he was right caused him to be responsible for the deaths of millions of innocent people. In Neptune's idealism these are opposites. Ace of Diamonds people have a lot of diversity in their dreamlike and optimistic natures. It is always there, regardless. These individuals can easily work two jobs at the same time and are capable and creative. All are naturally attracted to the meta-physical side of existence and have a psychic ability. They can lead lives of superior satisfaction and accomplishment if they are not fixated on money as their main value. A lot of their good luck comes from the new people they meet every day. While having artistic ability they are also ambitious. They love to travel and it is a significant part of their lives. An integral part of their lives is communication of every kind and they are usually active. They believe they are here to assist the world and make important contributions in the process, no matter what they do.

Relationships: The Ace of Diamonds men should refrain from marrying, according to many. They seem better suited to affairs and not long-term commitments because of restlessness about them. But, if they can find a perfect partner who will take the journey of life with them they are able come to terms with this restlessness. The identical energy that often results in love affairs can be satisfied this way. Again, whether they will have to sacrifice their career to experience the love they want is the primary challenge for Ace of Diamonds people. They frequently see their partner irregularly because they have a long distance relationship. Their vocation is thus permitted enough time, which is usually of prime importance to them. Occasionally the partner does not live up to their end of the agreement even though they have a positive view of them and are good providers and supporters. Disappointment and anger can result. Their needs and must be spoken about and they need to have a more realistic view of other people. The door is opened by Communication. They spend a lot of time traveling with their partner in some cases. Many find out the importance of having a partner with them instead to being separated by long distances at one time in their life. There is an influence in their relationships with others due to the powerful Neptune/Pisces element in the Ace of Diamonds.

Personality Connections: Clubs males, particularly those who have a more mature side in their personality are invariably better with Ace of Diamond women. While a lot of Diamond women are friends of both genders, they are not usually recommended for marriage. A Heart woman is better for an Ace of Diamonds man. A close look at the specific card should be done in order to avoid problems, however.

Confrontations: A Five in Venus may explain their romantic side, in these terms. There is a great distance created, for some reason, between Ace of Diamonds people and others.
