Characteristics: The King of Spades is ready to undertake great responsibility. Some become our greatest leaders because they are the most powerful of the Kings. King of Spades persons must be prepared and willing to take on the huge responsibility that leadership requires in order to release this great power. To be an example for the others to see, restlessness needs to be overcome in order to succeed in the chosen field. In any case, the King of Spades is the wisest and most powerful card in the deck. The King of Spades will surely rise to the top of any profession they desire, providing the men do not decide to remain Jacks. Being a master of anything they choose is a quality of the King of Spades. Many men give up most of the power they possess and choose the arts or entertainment arenas. Acting more like a Queen is usually a quality of Women King of Spades. To avoid becoming stuck in the commonplace in the scenario, caution is necessary. However, this is not representative of the pinnacle that is available to every King. They are frequently dissatisfied, in spite of all their ability. Progressiveness is also another way to see this. They are able to comprehend the secrets of the universe easily when they enter their spiritual realms. They master our physical and spiritual universes. Everyone benefits from their contributions when they accept the burden of responsibility as King. They are willing to do anything to acquire success and recognition. In addition, they respect the wisdom and love the learned. While it is not always their choice for work, they can manage huge organizations. There is a stubbornness about King of Spades people and no matter who it is, they will not change their minds. Inner fortitude and resolve is something they have in abundance. Unfortunately, this makes most changes in their life very difficult to handle because of these identical qualities. They often never get married and are indecisive relative to love and close friendships. They are always go-getters and are ambitious. This never fails. It is very rare for one to be lazy. While all do have a basic wisdom and seldom sink to lowly acts, not all reach the heights.

Relationships: The King of Spades has a lifetime goal to conquer fears of being abandoned and betrayed, because of their Pluto Card. Negativity can result when they experience both at stages in their lives. This possibility motivates them in a positive way in issues about love or personal growth and other significant areas. Changes and uncertainties are certain to result because the King of Spades tends to take a very cerebral approach to love. The place where the King of Spades has the most difficulties is love. Insecurity can often result and sexual areas can be influenced by this uncertainty. They have betrayals at times in their life according to the karmic system. Learning to let others be themselves and letting go of emotional attachments to loved ones are blessings in life. We find many will rarely allow others to get very close because of their strong will.

Personality Connections: King of Spades females frequently have difficulty with Diamond men, although they do share a strong attraction for each other. For the King of Spades women, Heart males are a difficulty, as are Club women. King of Spades males, when they do mate, frequently select a Club or Heart woman because they share a physical attraction.

Confrontations: We can see a definite pattern that shows something about what it feels like to have such enormous power and all that responsibility when we examine the lives of King of Spades individuals. Many prefer doing work that would normally be associated with Jacks, the card of actors. Sales, artists, musicians, or even gamblers are some occupations of many King of Spades. One might think that all King of Spades are super successful and hold powerful positions in society since it is the most powerful card in the deck, but this is not the case. The majority of King of Spades do not seem to live up to that perception.
