

Birth Cards: Sixes

Karma and justice are closely related. Balance, as the Scales in the sign of Libra tell us, is how justice is brought about. The Libra scales of justice are representative of the Law of Karma, or the law of cause and effect. Sixes are very aware of both karma and the law. Their awareness means that it is incorporated into their lives in a number of ways. It is, in fact, integrated into everything. Some are so aware of it that it knocks their karmic balance off because of the excessive nature of their perceptions. A lot of Sixes worry about money in the form of unpaid debts. Consequently they meticulously avoid acquiring debts to anyone. Others are acutely aware of laws but feel held back and uncomfortable. Thus they try to move through life on a free ride. Such people are irresponsible freeloaders who believe everyone owes them something. These are exaggerated views of Sixes. The point is that the Law of Karma is an integral part of their lives because it is built into their minds. Because Six is their birth number, it is carried throughout their lives and does not leave until they move on to the next portion of the cycle of life. Destiny and fate are incorporated into Sixes' scheme of knowledge as the number of their fate. They believe in destiny because of past action in their lives. The relentless Law of Karma is always on their minds as Sixes ponder good and evil and their cause. They often wonder about what sorts of things, both good and bad, will come to them through the inevitable Law of Karma. Holding on to a kind of fatalism, they unfortunately are prone to sitting and waiting for things to unfold. A sense of dread is part of some Sixes lives while other have a more positive viewpoint as they await something good to happen. The wait for good fortune often unfolds slowly for Sixes but eventually they find themselves in new conditions. These conditions can be good or bad and affect things such as finances and relationships. Complacency sometimes has to be fought before moving on to the next stage. Try as we may changing them usually does not work. Change comes only when they themselves are ready. The 7th house astrologically is Libra and is associated with Six. The two interlocking triangles of the Star of David are symbols of the Six. Peace, along with harmony is something they promote always. They may suppress their own feelings and conflicts because it upsets peace and balance. When peace is sought in an escapist manner, it can bounce back and result in aggressiveness. Stuffing anger down inside themselves, they can explode. Sixes are often excellent athletes because of not only competitiveness, but balance too. This is an integral part of their success both in sports and business. They have a sense of sportsmanship combined with competition that often makes them successful. Finally, Sixes are among the most psychic cards in the deck.
