This combination loves to talk and words play a vital part in their being. They help this individual think in a lucid fashion. There is a revolutionary hiding in the soul of the Aquarius-Monkey. The Aquarius-Monkey is a combination that has superior potential and often lives up to that billing. This is an individual with great resourcefulness and strength resulting from a special combination of qualities. The somewhat removed mindset of the Aquarius sees to it that the Monkey is not overly sentimental nor too emotional. The positive contribution of the Monkey is to provide a sense of reality. A fine equilibrium is the result and the future looks bright for them. They have a deep concern about society and change. They can be powerful and they like to be in charge. That does not, however, imply that they are power hungry. What they want is a world that is more peaceful, kind and caring and they are happy to lead others toward those goals. Truth and not power is what they seek. This combination lends clear thinking and intelligence to the world. They work hard and have a lot of strength. They are motivated to make miracles and frequently achieve them. They are people watchers and watch in order to understand. Their observations can lead them to articulate situations in a more understandable manner. Having done this, they can plan and then proceed to lead others toward a common destination. They are incredibly able at doing this and often take their personal reality and manage it in such a way that others adopt the same frame of mind. Fine areas for them to start on the path to their dreams are literature, history, and writing careers like journalism.

Romance: This combination needs love like most humans, but that does not mean a walk on the beach as the sun sets kind of life. They see love more in terms of a partnership of joy and pain; both of which need another person. Oddly, this does not mean fidelity. They are a combination highly prone to extra-marital flings. The reason for this is pure and simple amusement. The Aquarius-Monkey is cautious in the area of romance because they do not want drama or soap operas. Problems are to be avoided at all costs, partly because this person is so clear thinking. They also are ambitious and do not want distractions.

Relationships: Scorpio-Snakes are problematic because the Aquarius-Monkey is attracted to them, but this combination is not suitable for the long haul. Leading the parade in the category of love and romance are Gemini, Libra and Sagittarius-Rats. Right there with these combinations are Aries, Libra, Scorpio and Sagittarius-Dragons. Lagging behind are Taurus, Leo or even Scorpio-Boars. Even further behind are Taurus and Leo-Tigers.

Family Life: There is classiness about this combination but it is not glitzy. Impressing other is not on the Aquarius-Monkey's agenda. The same principles apply to this individual's wardrobe. A parent from this combination is earnest and dedicated to raising children. They have high expectations for them and try to create an environment that encourages them to have meaningful goals. The Aquarius-Monkey is real and what one sees is what one gets. What is seen in the home of an Aquarius-Monkey is always coherent, functional and without affectation. This combination is reasonable and so is their home. It is strong but not conservative. There is probably a leaning toward the modern, but there is always the pragmatic.

Likelihood: This combination has their own visions and desires and is excellent at bringing them about. On the other hand they will most likely be fine bosses because of their fundamental respect for others. They care and are friendly and even loving toward those who work for them. The Aquarius-Monkey is a natural intellectual and non-conformist. They are not cut out to be in business and they are not meant to be bureaucrats stuck in a repetitive job. They are rebels and want freedom not just for themselves but for others as well.

Famous Aquarius/Monkeys: Charles Dickens, Learned Hand, Anton Chekhov, Francois Truffaut, Milos Foreman, Gay Talese, Carl Bernstein, Angela Davis, Alice Walker.
