

Chinese and Western Combinations

Aries (Dragon) Month

Combination with Buffalo Year:

"Being" Mars, Fire, Cardinal

"Survivor" Yin-Negative Water

Characteristics: Vindictiveness, Affability, Stability, Talent, Excess, Domination, Sanctimony, Drive, Stubbornness, Enterprise, Integrity, Willfulness, Courage, Ostentation, Heartiness, Strength of Purpose, Bigotry, Naiveté, Standoffishness, Diligence, Eloquence, Plodding, Innovation, Bias

Strolling out in the world at a young age, the Aries character of this combination heads out strong and hopeful. The powerful but slow walk of the Buffalo diligently carries the proud Aries, prepared for any eventuality, toward serious, demanding destinations. This sign is so powerful it is seemingly carrying the earth on its little finger. Sheer might sends this combination directly toward accomplishment. Pragmatism, for Aries- Buffalo, depends instead on a concrete effect. This is not about games, rather the Aries- Buffalo must be permitted to work and get things accomplished and solve actual problems. This is their element and the way they sparkle. But in the modern technological-urban world, shows of physical strength generally do not count. Aries- Buffalo are achievers and there is no doubt about it because of the in-your-face lack of subtlety. There is not much friendship here, but neither is there hate. Communication does not come easy for this loving colossus. Aries- Buffalo shyness runs to the ominous. The oddness here is that the Aries- Buffalo can be a well-expressed narrator, but be incapable of chatting with the mail carrier. Aries- Buffalo are ungainly.

Romance: There is not a lot of original seduction in the Aries- Buffalo nature. Sex simply is not the highest priority here. The emphasis is on accomplishment or at times displeasure. But sentimentality is shunned entirely. The Aries- Buffalo offers the actual ideal love and astounding faithfulness. Aries- Buffalo love with quiet succinct ardor. They are a mountain of love and dependable security. Creativity is another matter.

Relationships: Virgo-Tigers annoy you because they are arrogant. You are not crazy about Libra-Rabbits and ghostly Pisces-Rams. Your romantic partners include Leo-Roosters, Rats and Monkeys. But that is not all. Virgo-Pigs like your strength and you will be drawn to Sagittarians; both the Dragon and Monkey types. Your heart skips a beat with Gemini-Snakes.

Family Life: A family comfortable at home is where the Aries- Buffalo rests and sleeps better. The safety of home is the Aries- Buffalo's choice. Everything about this combo functions better and smoother at home. Perfection is what is desired and anything not up to that will not be tolerated. Moreover the Aries-Buffalo is the CEO at home and that is that. Offspring of Aries-Buffalo will tend to be gifted but obstinate. A highly discontent Aries-Buffalo results if there is even a hint of competition for that role. The throne, in the end, belongs to them. Adapt or leave. In a break up they can be difficult and end saying rather unflattering things about you. The alternative, if you do not want to lose all those comforts in the dream home, is to just placate him for a week or so. This combo will lighten right up.

Likelihood: A large dose of reflection and vigilance are part of the character by as young as thirty. Gullibility dissipates from the joyful Aries by that time and generally not many enjoy having commerce with them. And nobody wants to buy anything from a grump. The aptitude to accumulate a lot of money is in the hands of the Aries-Buffalo. A lot of this depends on working hard while young. Doing that guarantees security. It would be much harder later in life, if youth is wasted. There is, however, no laziness here ever.

Famous Aries/Buffalo: Lionel Hampton, Karl Maiden, Melvyn Douglas, Merle Haggard.