

Chinese and Western Combinations

Capricorn (Buffalo) Month

Combination with Horse Year:

"Utilize" Saturn, Earth, Cardinal

"Feel" Yang-Negative Fire

Characteristics: Exclusiveness, Wisdom, Self-Doubt, Compassion, Clairvoyance, Presumption, Superiority, Epicureanism, Dependability, Generosity, Loneliness, Discretion, Laziness, Sagacity, Cupidity, Extravagance, Ambition, Clumsiness, Attractiveness, Pretension, Intuition, Resolve, Stiffness, Dissimulation

This combination is the kind of person who others exclaim about; he is a good guy. While they might not exactly have bleeding hearts, they care for the less fortunate and act on their beliefs. They take care to see that the details of home, health and hygiene of the poor and needy are dealt with. They lead by example and show the rich and greedy how things ought to be done. The Capricorn-Horse is the Rock of Gibraltar. Probably no combination in the galaxy is more dependable and steadfast. The Capricorn is solid and has a character that refuses to quit. The Horse, while a bit on the peachy side, is flexible and tuned in. Added to their wonderful and reliable nature is a kind and helpful aspect. They frequently put others ahead of themselves. The Capricorn-Horse works hard and is meticulous. Details are important to them. This combination does not give up. They are relentless in their efforts to complete a task successfully. The Capricorn-Horse can be touchy and judgmental. They can have problems with those who do not understand them or where they are coming from. Fortunately though, they are lovers of peace and acceptance. Their air, which is perhaps a bit on the distant and aloof side, does taint their deportment a bit.

Romance: This combination is profoundly and deeply loyal and the idea of betrayal is out of the question. The last thing on earth they are is promiscuous. What they want in life is a partner who has a sense of humor and who is loyal in return. The Capricorn-Horse leaves a lot of suitors behind in a state of unrequited love. This is a combination of love, serenity and kindness. That is the inner being of the Capricorn-Horse. Not only do they love, they are loved in return; virtually all of them. They are looked up to for their gifts and for their nature. They are chased after by the opposite sex relentlessly. That is fine and interesting. It is also a total waste of time if the Capricorn-Horse is already attached to someone.

Relationships: Much further down the list and in the not recommended group for compatibility in this combination are Aries, Cancer or Libra-Horses. In fact, Horses in general are poor selections. Out of the running entirely are Cancer and Libra-

Monkeys. A fine selection in the love category for the Capricorn-Horse is the Ram. Among the Rams the best choices are Taurus, Leo and Pisces individuals, continuing with Virgo, Scorpio and Pisces-Tigers. Dogs that are members of the same signs are also excellent.

Family Life: This combination's home will probably have a lot of houseplants and the outdoors will have a lovely garden with some emphasis on wild flowers. The Capricorn-Horse is an excellent mother or father. They are extremely supportive and demonstrative in their love. They are also on the strict side but try to be good examples to their offspring. The Capricorn-Horse is conservative and likes a conservative and traditional environment in their home. The Horse may inject a tiny bit of color, but that will not be overwhelming by any means. This combination is much more interested in the workings of things rather than the appearance of things. They simply are not flashy at all. Earthy or other natural colors are their favorites and they are somewhat rustic and country like in their tastes. Wood is a favorite as is stone.

Likelihood: This combination likes to help people and see to it that things work for them. They need to see the fruits of their labor. Glamour and fluff are not in this combinations make up at all. The Capricorn-Horse cares about others and has a keen social awareness. They are humanitarians. Fields that might be of interest to this combination are science, crafts, veterinary medicine, architecture or nursing. The Capricorn-Horse will find anything in the area of the service professions to their liking. They like routine and they like situations that involve some creativity and problem solving. They have no interest in being a super star.

Famous Capricorn/Horses: Isaac Newton, Puccini, Pasteur, Mendes-France, Anwar Sadat, Andy Rooney.
