Capricorn (Buffalo) Month

Combination with Tiger Year:

"Utilize" Saturn, Earth, Cardinal

"Observe" Yang-Positive Wood

Characteristics: Authority, Dependability, Self-Doubt, Itinerancy, Intemperance, Superiority, Benevolence, Epicureanism, Magnetism, Clumsiness, Disobedience, Loneliness, Generosity, Good Luck, Pretension, Resolve, Bravery, Ambition, Hotheadedness, Stiffness, Fervor, Wisdom, Impetuosity, Swagger

It is true that this combination is ambitious but they also happen to be generous in the same way that, perhaps, flower children are generous. This comparison extends to their slightly unconventional lifestyle. It is actually quite amazing that they have the time to get bored because they are so busy most of the time that they need several calendars as well as an appointment secretary. The hallmarks for the Capricorn-Tiger are speed and kindness toward all. Everything they do, they do quickly; walk, talk and think. They also happen to be totally authentic without one iota of façade. They do, unfortunately, suffer from boredom from time to time and this is not a trait that speaks kindly of anyone. They think it is perfectly reasonable to help themselves to the food at a banquet and take some home with them. They call dignitaries by their first names and might even put their feet on expensive tables or chairs the first time they visit someone. This combination might have been the first on earth to be known as hyperactive. They make bees and ants look lazy. There is a bit of goofy circulating through them and they are terrific at being clumsy, particularly in the social realm. On the other hand, for the most part, they do not subscribe to the social graces and think of them as nonsense.

Romance: This combination wants someone who understands and shares their values and someone who can help create a proper home for children, pets and other animals. It has to be someone special because the Capricorn-Tiger is so active. In spite of their busy schedule, they share their love and want it shared in return; lots of it. This person is, as they say, a keeper. They are worth every bit of effort because they give it all back and then some. Any partner should hang on very tightly and not lose them. The Capricorn-Tiger loves and respects all sentient beings. They love nature. They love children. There is nothing put on about this. It is totally genuine and guides everything they do, including their choice of partners.

Relationships: Combinations for compatibility that should be avoided in the area of love are Aries, Cancer or Libra-Rams. Additional poor selections are Aries or Cancer-

Rabbits as well as Aries or Libra-Monkeys, Aries-Boars or Cancer-Buffalos or Snakes. Top of the range selections in romance are Taurus, Leo, Virgo, Scorpio and Pisces-Dogs. Additional wonderful choices are Leo, Virgo, Scorpio or Pisces-Horses. The Scorpio-Dragon is not a wise pick but there is a chance there will be temptation.

Family Life: This combination's abode is relaxed and it is the kind of place where one can help themselves to anything in the fridge. Of course that probably will not be necessary because the Capricorn-Tiger is first class at taking care of people. This is a freedom loving and real person. As a result their children are free; very free. Love and freedom go hand in hand for the Capricorn-Tiger so their kids often take over the house or yard. The Capricorn-Tiger is a combination that is fond of real estate and holds on to it. This should not be taken to mean that they enjoy working around the house because they have no interest in that whatsoever. As with the person themselves, their home is quite real and there is nothing affected about it. They have as little interest in making a show of their homes as they do in fixing plumbing. Everyone feels comfortable in the home of a Capricorn-Tiger.

Likelihood: This combination needs to have some freedom to choose their own approach to life and they need to have challenging work to be happy. They are extremely talented at many tasks in many fields and, in spite of what one might think, they like to have competition. They are also good for problem solving and like most things in their lives they have an unusual ability to solve issues and difficulties quite quickly. Freedom follows the Capricorn-Tiger to their professional life as well. Independence is precisely what they need in their work. They are not exactly anti-authoritarian because if rules are reasonable they can follow them. They are quite disobedient, however, if they do not see the purpose in something.

Famous Capricorn/Tigers: Jon Voight, Patricia Neal.
