This combination is not just hot headed, but they are hot about everything. If they were a car, it would be one designed for drag racing. And those qualities just describe the Gemini portion of this combination. Spontaneity is not this combinations middle name. Spontaneity is their first name. Blink your eyes and the Gemini-Tiger is in a new place with a new project involving new people. A supreme self-image comes from the Tiger part. They are number one and they know it. The extraordinary thing about all this is that it is essentially correct. This combination tends to be leaders and they are frequently successful. However, there is a catch to this latter point. They need others; perhaps more than most. Who will they lead, who will they be popular with and, for that matter, and who will they get in trouble with if not with other human beings? It is precisely for this reason that they need to back off occasionally and stick to one thing; or, in a lot of cases, one person. They are an awesome creature who is loaded with charm and has the popularity to prove it. Yes, they find themselves in trouble from time to time, but they are sharp enough to get themselves out of it as often as not.

Romance: The Gemini-Tiger is not cruel and they do not like this idea. They do not try to hurt the other person. But, the long and short of it is that they do and they frequently do it big time. As a corollary of this, they like to be the center of attraction in groups or special places. Wine them and dine them, especially among the rich and famous, and you might actually hook them. But, with the elusive Gemini-Tiger, it is hard to say for sure. It is not that the Gemini-Tiger collects romantic partners. It is not even that they are stuck on themselves or that they are egomaniacs. It is that they enjoy, that is to say relish, being the center of someone's affections; the center of their life. Somewhere in their hearts they realize that the other person is going to suffer horribly from a disappointment or breakup.

Relationships: Virgo and Scorpio-Snakes, Tigers and Monkeys are not suggested for this combination and they should avoid Sagittarius- Horses, Rabbits and Rams as well as Pisces-Snakes. This is a good combination for relationships. Aries-Dogs and Horses, Leo-Dogs or Horses and Libra- Dogs or Horses are good choices. Additionally, Aquarius-Dragons are fine as are Aquarius-Dogs.

Family Life: This combination can be great parents and dearly love and care for their children. This is particularly true in the area of learning, because this combination inherently knows the value of a good education. As might be expected, this combination is not exactly a homebody. Mowing lawns and making new drapes are not for the Gemini-Tiger. That is not mobile enough and they do need to be on the move. Sure, their home can be awesome; the stuff that magazine articles are made of, but that is because this combination loves a show and loves to be noticed.

Likelihood: If you want the real McCoy and the whole enchilada, this combination is for you. They are, to put it plainly, different. They do not hear the same music other people do and consequently do not march the same. In fact, they probably do not march at all. They dance and people love it. That is why, in the end, so many of this combination are successful. There is no one like the Gemini-Tiger. There are people as fast, but not many. There are people as flexible, but not many. If you want a good manager or supervisor, do not employ this combination. If you want a good worker, they are not for you.

Famous Gemini/Tigers: Yuri Andropov, Barbara McClintock, Marilyn Monroe..
