The unusual nature of the Pisces-Buffalo lays in the gap between the fundamental sumo wrestler nature of this individual and the real being of the Pisces-Buffalo. This is another one of life's lessons in the area of what one sees is not always what one gets department. They might look like they are in La-la-land, but they are actually a bit on the devious side and are preparing to hatch new plans. They are not at all, in the final analysis the Pisces individuals lost in reverie. The Pisces-Buffalo is one of the more unusual characters to be encountered in the galaxy. For starters, they have an appearance of fluff and ruffles. Those who think they have this combination figured out are in for a dramatic and memorable eye opening. This powerful but seemingly benign entertainer can knock one's socks off. Actually, they are so clever they might remove one's socks, much to the dismay of the now shoeless individual. Furthermore, and as a word of caution, no one should ever run the risk of angering the Pisces-Buffalo. For starters, the quick wit of this individual can cut people down to size with their sarcasm. The Pisces-Buffalo continues with their routine and they wait. After they have waited, they wait some more. In this fashion, they win nearly every time. They cannot be stopped. They generally do not, however, employ that tactic. They are rather more insidious than that. Their tactic for winning is not violence or coercion. The way they win is accomplished more slowly, like chopping down a big tree with a hatchet. They are not abusive and they are not rude.

Romance: This combination is very sensitive and intuitive about others, however, and their judgments in this regard are usually spot on. They see weak spots and, in the case of opponents, begin scheming. This individual can be invisible and successful every single, solitary time. It is important to note and be reminded of the fact that success is not a guarantee of happiness however. This is, after all, 50% fish and probably will never attain eternal harmony.

Relationships: On the negative side in the relationship department for this combination are Gemini and Virgo-Dragons. Further poor choices are Sagittarius-Rams or Monkeys. The Pisces-Buffalo likes Rats. Among them, the Cancer, Scorpio or Capricorn-Rats are the top selections for love and romance. Additional excellent possibilities are Snakes and Roosters from the same western signs. Another good pick is the Scorpio-Dragon.

Family Life: As a parent the Pisces-Buffalo is loving albeit pushy and stubborn. They love their children so much that it is difficult for them to let the offspring go when they have matured. The family adds balance to this combination. The home of a Pisces-Buffalo is akin to a summer palace. It is grand and, being somewhat castle like, it is to be defended. That means a kind of concrete and specific approach to decorating. This home, after all, is the vision of the Pisces-Buffalo that the world will have. It is classical as well as traditional and looks like everything has been carefully taken care of for a generation or two at least. The colors must not be flashy and the artwork must be representative and proportioned. There is essentially nothing modern in the décor.

Likelihood: This combination wants luxury and they know how to win through patience. Activating all this guarantees success. They need to come from a family that is guiding and moral. They must be taught principles. Lacking this framework is risky and being led in the other direction can be disastrous. As bosses they have respect even though they are meticulous and fussy. They are difficult, but they are fair. This combination is steady and brave and assured of success if reared in the proper environment and exposed to the right things in life. The Pisces-Buffalo is capable of success and riches if that is the path they take. They are highly imaginative and inventive as well as having vast stores of energy. They were practically born motivated. There is a wide streak of materialism in their character.
