The Pisces-Rooster is an explorer of life. This comes about largely from the Pisces element of their being. The exterior of this combination shows a self-confident and almost smug appearance. The fact is, however, there is a lot of insecurity because they do not trust in their appeal and, indeed, are unaware that they have it on occasions. While there is a certain insecurity in the nature of the Pisces-Rooster, there should not be. They are exceptionally flexible and comfortable in nearly any setting. They can go to the most exotic and other worldly place on earth and feel right at home. They are independent and enjoy change. They fear that their love will be one directional and this makes them sad. Open up this individual and one will discover a modest and self-effacing individual who abhors arrogance. The Rooster is actually an earthy individual with a lot of common sense and the spirit of adventure. This is diametrically opposed to the Pisces side. They have no confidence in their looks and often believe that they are homely. They do, however, put on a good show, choosing some elements they believe in and bragging at times. They will look at a person and proclaim their own wonderful attributes. In this way, and in spite of their insecurity, they are conceited. Their mistake in life is pretending which, to put it directly, means they are a fake.

Romance: There is a lot of whining involved in the area of romance for the Pisces-Rooster. Partners should not tolerate such behavior. They need to put a stop to it the moment it starts. They need to emphasize the fact that deep inside this combination is a romantic. The Pisces-Rooster is frequently deep in the "nobody loves me" school of thought. No one cares and nothing works. Part of the problem is that this individual gets disheartened too easily. Beating in the heart of a Pisces-Rooster is an idealist who, for some reason, does not stick things out when there is the slightest sign of trouble. This is a consequence, as often as not, of their notion that they are wonderful. Because of this, no one should ever make trouble with them, be ill-mannered, short tempered or sarcastic.

Relationships: Not making the list of recommended combinations are Gemini, Virgo and Sagittarius-Rabbits. Also Gemini-Roosters are poor selections. Gemini-Boars are out of the question. Terrific choices in the romance department are Taurus, Cancer, Scorpio and Capricorn-Buffalos. Additionally, Cancer, Scorpio and Capricorn-Snakes are great. Also on a positive note, there are Taurus and Capricorn-Dragons.

Family Life: There are enough issues rambling around in this individual's psyche already and adding children to the mix is not very appealing to them. In the event they do have children, the responsibility for rearing them will be largely left in the hands of their partner. This combination is not a kid lover and they are impatient with them. The Pisces-Rooster is prone to being a neatness-freak. They are particularly so in their home. They will generally choose vivid colors for decorating. They fall into the category of people who want to make an impression with their home and their style. It is therefore important that their choices jump out at people and their color scheme is used for this purpose. They love earthy and natural object and probably live in a large country type home. They also choose the natural and lean toward the traditional.

Likelihood: The Pisces-Rooster is good at following orders and does what they are told. They are somewhat lacking in the creativity department and are more of a by the book type person. The Pisces-Rooster does have empathy regarding others' problems and are flexible in allowing them to carry things out their own way. Pisces-Roosters are filled with both adventure and ability.
