

Chinese and Western Combinations

Sagittarius (Rat) Month

Combination with Rabbit Year:

"Witness" Jupiter, Fire, Mutable

"Withdraw" Yin-Negative Wood

Characteristics: Complexity, Contradiction, Prudence, Ambition, Solicitude, Honor, Carelessness, Dilettantism, Longevity, Openhandedness, Bad Manners, Virtue, Valor, Pedantry, Vacillation, Hypochondria, Recklessness, Reason, Finesse, Squeamishness, Cheerfulness, Tact, Outspokenness, Secretiveness

This Sagittarius is not as unruly as other Sagittarians. There is an awareness and sensitivity here brought to the table by the Rabbit. There is more of an awareness of the surroundings and the need for being tactful with others. The Sagittarius-Rabbit has a cautious side that comes from the influence of the Rabbit. On the other hand, the Sagittarius is more lighthearted. The blending of these two signs results in diminishing the unruliness of the Sagittarius by the more sensible Rabbit side. The motive for much of this is that the Rabbit has a serious interest in advancing themselves financially and professionally. There is no retreat and there is no surrender in their being. Rather the rough edges have been smoothed over and the energy left in place. They have accepted their blows from the past and resolved to move on with a new and even more powerful frame of mind. They possess a kind of wisdom in things pertaining to their career. While they have a lot of energy and pizzazz, this combination has a side that can seem downhearted. If one looks carefully in the eyes of a Sagittarius-Rabbit, that part of their nature might be visible. Interestingly enough though, the Sagittarius-Rabbit seems to use their melancholy as a source of strength.

Romance: This combination cannot contain all of that sexual energy all of the time, however. The result is often serial monogamy, but they are certainly not beyond straying beyond the bonds that they have created. Neither are they beyond helping the partners of others stray beyond their promises. In the long run, they do have an ability to hold on to previous lovers as friends and at least in this sense, they are loyal and faithful. The Sagittarius-Rabbit is a person who frequently has one relationship after another; it's almost as though they are looking for something special. While there is a big sexual drive in this combination, a lot of that is repressed and directed in other ways.

Relationships: Not making the list for compatibility in this combination are Gemini, Virgo and Pisces-Roosters. Their Tiger equivalents are not suggested either. Fine selections for love and romance are Aries, Leo and Aquarius-Dogs. Also high on the list of possibilities are Leo, Libra and Aquarius-Boars. There are even more good picks with Aries and Aquarius-Rams. Aries-Snakes are generally quite attractive to the Sagittarius-Rabbit.

Family Life: Odds are that their primary home will be a country estate that is highly comfortable. In addition, there will probably be some domestic help who is treated with loving-kindness. As a parent the Sagittarius-Rabbit tends to not be extremely involved and leaves much of the actual parenting to their partner. The older the child gets, however, the more interest this combination will have. In the same manner that the Sagittarian Rabbit might partake of serial monogamy, they might also partake of having multiple homes. But in this case, they are likely to be happening all at the same time. The members of this combination are wanderers. Something in their being calls them to roam and they must answer that call. Further, the travel must be first class travel. Without this, there is a lack of completion. None of this is to say that the Sagittarius-Rabbit will not have one primary place that they consider home. They will.

Likelihood: This combination needs to take care not to have personal problems that distract them. Having set their goal they need to focus on that and if this is done they are capable of many things. Opening a business or managing a company or virtually anything is possible. Finally, this combination is good with groups and is a person looked up to and listened to by others. Sagittarius-Rabbits are talented individuals. They can be artistic and creative or more business oriented. It is possible they even have a technical aptitude. The point is that they will have some ability that stands out and they will be able to utilize this. Because they can be multi-talented, they need to be careful not to spread themselves too thin.

Famous Sagittarius/Rabbits: Edith Piaf, Augusto Pinochet, Frank Sinatra.
