

Chinese and Western Combinations

Scorpio (Boar) Month

Combination with Horse Year:

"Form" Mars, Water, Fixed

"Command" Yang-Positive Fire

Characteristics: Accomplishment, Style, Anxiety, Intransigence, Pragmatism, Dexterity, Tenderness, Suspicion, Discipline, Selfishness, Rebellion, Revenge, Fanaticism, Popularity, Inspiration, Magnetism, Sadism, Unscrupulousness, Sovereignty, Autonomy, Persuasiveness, Dedication, Mercilessness, Haste

This combination is convincing, animated, devoted and stylish. This is a freedom loving combination that is capable of acting responsibly on their own. They are sharp and have a great deal of energy. Jobs that others shy away from the Scorpio-Horse excel at doing. There are a lot of positive situations going on with the Scorpio-Horse. That is because it possesses most of the positive qualities of each sign. This combination does a great job of self-ruling. They have a view and approach to things that is outside the box. This combination is so good in these areas that they are prone to overconfidence and can allow themselves to take a trip to fantasyland. This is something they need to guard against. Their independent streak tends to set them apart so far that they can be misfits with their peers. There is something almost heroic and magical about them at times. They can look at a task, analyze it and carry it out with expertise. Their appearance and their touch have a perception of success.

Romance: This combination is magnificent with those they love and give a warm and fuzzy feeling. They also happen to be a little odd, but that only adds interest. The Scorpio-Horse is fun to be with and to play with. They appreciate help with the tasks in their lives, but are autonomous and need some space at times. There is a serious pragmatic side to the Scorpio-Horse and that is the guiding principle they have in the area of romance. It must work and that includes feeling comfortable and being hassle free. They are not beyond straying a tad, but those they stray with are not the people they will marry.

Relationships: Rats, in general, are poor picks for compatibility in this combination. Other combinations to stay away from are Taurus, Gemini, Leo and Aquarius-Horses. Emphatically out of the question are Aquarius- Rabbits. Top-notch selections in the area of love and romance are the Cancer, Virgo, Capricorn or Pisces-Tiger or Ram. More good selections are Virgo and Pisces-Dogs.

Family Life: When children enter the picture that is who they dedicate their lives to. Their kids pick up on the love and are marvelous themselves. They seem to be born wise. In addition, they are extraordinarily well behaved. They are enjoyable to be around from a very young age. The home of the Scorpio-Horse is marked by aesthetics and comfort. It will be attractive and highly organized. In addition, it will be extremely clean. This combination must have order in their home. Their homes are pleasing to visit. The Scorpio-Horse totally and completely loves their children and would do absolutely anything for them.

Likelihood: This combination likes to do things according to their own procedure, method and time frame. They make better leaders than followers but it is best of all if they work alone. If they are left to their own devices, things do get done because they are very responsible. The heart beating in the chest of a Scorpio-Horse is the heart of an artist. They are someone who creates. While they can do most jobs, those that involve creativity are the best. Like most artists, they hear a tune of their own and that is the way they work. They dislike being constrained inside a rigid structure.

Famous Scorpio/Horses: Teddy Roosevelt, Paul Simon, Daniel Barenboim.