Virgo people are very devoted to their families. Virgo is a clear thinker but also a worry wart. Virgo people are the detail people; in fact it has been said only half in jest that the world keeps spinning thanks to the attention of Virgos. They are not big talkers and do not seek to stand out in a crowd. However, they will be noticing every little thing down to the last detail. Perfectionism is considered a strong Virgo personality trait. Everything around Virgo people has to be just perfect or else the situation has to be put right by a Virgo. Virgo people do not like crowds and rather than attending the party would sooner be helping the children put the finishing touches on their near perfect school homework. Virgo people have a mysterious knack to see into the essence of a particular situation or to the core of a person. Virgos are meticulous in their work habits and also in personal hygiene. Because of their tendency to fret and worry over the details and how the world is going to hell in a hand basket and how this Virgo is needed to set the world right, the Spleen Sound of the Six Healing Sounds is prescribed. When the Virgo discovers and lives the beneficent results of these movements, sounds and meditations the sounds will be a fixture of the Virgos bedtime routine right after flossing. Virgo people base their actions on what is real, not what is imagined. Sensation is prized over thoughts or feelings. Virgo people live with their feet rooted to the earth. Once they discover Iron Shirt Chi Kung they understand that Virgo really is the connection between heaven and earth. Virgos, just as doubting Saint Thomas, must see, must experience to believe. Although Virgos are popularly held to be aloof or distant regarding physical love, when they focus their loving attention they become passionate paramours. Virgo people are quite efficient at sorting through things or people or situations to draw out what is important and what is a waste of time. They look for the best and flush the rest. Virgo people feel complete when they are helping, when they are in service. The Virgo color is blue.
