

Sun in Sagittarius/Moon in Libra:

Bookworm

You have an endless belief in yourself and your future and you have a strong independent aspect. You have far-reaching aspirations like all confident people. Your aptitude to learn quickly and attractive charm and good spirits work to your benefit. Since you followed your own unique path to success there is no doubt you will attain recognition. Open-minded, rational Sagittarius, in your combination, is coupled with socially oriented, tender, and inventive Libra. A cheerful, hopeful, delightful, and naive idealist is whom most people know. However there is also a very solemn part to your nature too. It is that of the philosopher who has great subtlety and perceptivity. You have a very vivid imagination and sometimes it is too vivid because far-fetched fantasies can carry you away. No matter how far you drift, luck is always by your side and everything seems to be just right. In all likelihood you have a great desire for knowledge, especially theoretical knowledge. You get mixed up by details and prefer to deal with larger concepts. You are much more interested in the meaning of life than by how to balance your budget. Your personality is lively and dynamic. There is always something that is innocent in you no matter how deep and serious you may be. People find it difficult to resist your humor and fresh appeal because you are fun loving and bold. You are apt to gain a lot respect and power and enjoy a busy social life. You are truthful, devoted, and undemanding professionally. You never compromise your values but know how to work through life's demands. The opposite sex is attracted to you. You spend a lot of time looking for the right partner because you are romantic and idealistic. Your desire for variety, combined with restlessness, in your love life often ruins your quest because of restlessness. You have a lazy streak, like all those with the Moon in Libra, and your dreams may simply stay dreams unless you gain the strength of mind to follow them through. Recognition may blind your basically sound judgment because you are a bit enthralled by charm, and sweet talk. Your specialty is social insight. You have an instinctive understanding of others and you are a natural diplomat. Any field having to do with human relations or social activism is perfect for the Sagittarius- Libra, including teaching, counseling, law, politics, and sociology.
