

Sun in Virgo/Moon in Sagittarius:

Dreaming Idealist

Your being is either the rebellious adventurer who listens to the inner voice or allows the Virgo to be the boss and settles for the devoted and responsible approach, but as a highly frustrated traditionalist. The balance of Virgo-Sagittarius people compromise by working in an integrated and formal framework, but keeping a bold, impulsive spirit. You have a strong autonomous aspect and high standards. Your Sagittarius Moon makes you a lover of freedom and a rebel; someone who is impulsive and adventurous. On the other hand, the Virgo Sun leads you to be careful, tolerant, quiet and methodical. These are very diverse signs, which lead to a multifaceted and interesting person, but one who is mixed up. When setting your goals and defining your beliefs and life-style, you are never certain which part of your twin personality should be in charge. You believe you ought to be your own boss and this is probably correct. Being an independent businessperson is a good choice for Virgo-Sagittarius. No matter what you choose for your profession, your work behavior always shows a Virgo's realism and administration, together with the Sagittarius fervor and nerve. Impulsiveness at times, counteracts your best attempts. A full social life and a lot of outside interests are very important. You will surprise yourself and just move on one day if you let your attachment to your job make you feel restricted. You have a powerful need to express your feelings and beliefs and are very humorous, but there is also a leaning toward speaking out and being blunt with off the cuff comments. You may at times, because of this, disaffect those very close to you. You should attempt to think about the feelings of others before you speak. As wonderful as they may be, keeping your thoughts to yourself is sometime better. Your success in life is helped by your persuasive, charming manner, which draws people to you. There are times when you fancy testing your luck, use intuition, or go with some amorous or daring notion even though you seem to be fairly unworried most of the time. If you feel you are somewhat restricted or controlled by work, marriage or life-style, this yearning will overcome you. At the first sign of boredom or drudgery you get fidgety. By being sure your pursuits and work offer the exhilaration and variety you require, you can learn to manage that unpredictable nature of yours.
